

Merger Vote

Why Merge?

ICCU and CALCOE have a shared culture of serving our membership and communities. By merging the two credit unions, we will reinforce our mission, maintain local staff, increase community investment, and bring a broader range of financial products and services to our members. This agreement will also provide greater opportunities for our team members, including competitive salaries and benefits, industry-leading technology, and increased professional growth and development.

Why ICCU?

ICCU, or Idaho Central Credit Union, was organized as a state-chartered credit union in 1940 and has since grown to have over $14 billion in assets and serves over 750,000 members throughout Idaho, Washington, Arizona, and eastern Oregon. ICCU offers a wide variety of financial products, including personal and business banking, mortgage services, wealth management, insurance, and more. ICCU is a full-service, federally insured financial institution and is ranked as a top credit union in the nation for returning value to its members.

LESLIE JOHNSON
CALCOE CEO

“Merging with ICCU is about securing a stronger future for our members and employees. ICCU’s financial strength and advanced technology will allow us to deliver the convenience and innovation our members expect—without sacrificing the local service and community values that define CALCOE. This partnership means expanded branch access, enhanced digital tools, and greater career opportunities for our team. Most importantly, it ensures that every member continues to receive the personalized care they deserve while benefiting from the resources of a larger, forward-thinking organization.”

“Our decision to merge with ICCU is rooted in what’s best for our members and employees. ICCU brings the scale, technology, and resources that allow us to keep pace with rapid regulatory changes and deliver the competitive products and services our members deserve. This partnership ensures continued local presence while opening doors to expanded branch access, advanced digital banking, and career growth opportunities for our team. Together, we can preserve the community values CALCOE was built on while taking our members confidently into the future.”

TONY ROTH
BOARD CHAIR

Merger FAQs

Why should I vote in favor of the merger between CALCOE and ICCU?

The CALCOE Board of Directors chose ICCU because they believe ICCU is the best fit for the needs of the members, the credit union, team members, and the community. CALCOE and ICCU have a shared culture of serving our members and our communities. By merging the two credit unions, we will reinforce our mission, maintain local staff, increase community investment, and bring a broader range of financial products and services to our members.

How does this merger impact the community?

CALCOE has long served both the financial and philanthropic needs of our communities. If the merger is approved, ICCU is excited to engage with local nonprofits in an even bigger way. Serving the community is at the core of ICCU's mission, and ICCU is committed to significantly increasing its investment in Washington.

How does this merger impact CALCOE members?

ICCU is committed to making this transition as seamless as possible for CALCOE members. As a result of the merger, CALCOE members will have access to more financial products, services, and technologies, including VideoChat, credit monitoring with My Credit, CardControl, and much more. ICCU plans to expand its branch network to increase convenience for local members. Further plans will be explored as we progress through the merger.

Will I see the same staff after the merger?

Members can look forward to being served by the same local staff they know and trust today. ICCU's goal is to retain all team members and provide career growth opportunities within the organization.

Will the CALCOE branch locations remain open?

Yes, the existing CALCOE branches will remain open. ICCU plans to look for additional branch opportunities in the future.

When is the merger expected to be complete?

If approved, the merger will be finalized in June 2026. Leading up to and following the legal merger, we will work on providing a seamless transition of CALCOE members' financial services.

Where can I ask questions that are not answered here?

For more information, please call or visit a CALCOE branch location.

